Dear Allen:

I wish to thank you for recommending my membership in the Century Association. It is especially pleasant to have such a recommendation from a person I regard so highly as I do you.

I consider it unfortunate that in our busy lives here in Washington we do not have the opportunity to see our friends as we should like, but I often think of you and the great services that you are rendering our country.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

I have just learned from the Honorable Herbert Brownell that Mr. J. Lee Rankin has been proposed for non-resident membership in the Century Association.

Mr. Rankin has had a distinguished career in the legal profession, presently being the Solicitor General of the United States. I have known Mr. Rankin for a number of years in our work here in the Government and know him to be of the highest character and to possess the other attributes we look for in prospective members.

I heartily recommend him for membership in the Association.

Sincerely,
